

Top-quality entertainment in the heart of Centennial . . .

Welcome to our fifth season!

Join us for this heartfelt concert series featuring some of the area's finest talent! Each concert is free of charge, and a "love offering" will be collected with net proceeds going to our mission partners.

Come enjoy great music while supporting your community

Smooth Operator | Friday, April 17, 2020

Thanks to our 2019-2020 Corporate Sponsors

Metrum Community Credit Union

Become an Angel Today

Join our angelic chorus of individual sponsors whose generosity funds the costs associated with our series. Your tax deductible gift is accepted at any time, and your support of the Music with a Mission Concert Series will be recognized in each concert program. Please contact Kathy Hunter at 303-740-2688 to make a donation.

Seraphim - $500 and above
Cherubim - $300 - $499
Archangels - $100-$299
Angels - $25 - $99

Good Shepherd Episcopal Church
8545 E. Dry Creek Rd. | Centennial, CO | 80112
303-740-2688 | gshep.org

MUSIC With A MISSION
Concert Series
2019 - 2020

Good Shepherd Episcopal Church

8545 E. Dry Creek Rd. Centennial, CO 80112
gshep.org | 303.740.2688

COLORADO CAROLING COMPANY White Christmas Show

Wednesday
December 11, 2019 @ 7 pm
To benefit HAAT Force
South Metro

Just in time for the holidays, you won't want to miss this talented quartet who will bring to life the music and magic suggested by the classic American film White Christmas. You'll enjoy the great music of Irving Berlin and other contemporary holiday favorites as you reminisce and dream of a time, "just like the ones we used to know." This great holiday event will warm your heart and fill you with Christmas spirit.

DENVER BRASS 5 American Soundscape: From Broadway to Bourbon Street

Friday, February 21, 2020
@ 7 pm
To benefit Covenant
Cupboard Food Pantry

Mardi Gras and street-party traditions come alive in this musical tribute to the cities where bold brass shines brighter than the lights on Broadway! Join the Denver Brass5 as we celebrate the cultural fusions that make up our American Soundscape – from the birth of blues and gospel to the fusion of classics and jazz. The Denver Brass5 will parade you from the Big Apple to the French Quarter, where blues, Dixieland, ragtime and all manner of jazz fusion and American folk traditions rule to this day!

HALA KAHIKI BAND HAWAIIAN & TIKI MUSIC

Friday, January 17, 2020 @ 7 pm
To benefit St. Francis Center for the homeless

The "Hala Kahiki Band" (Pineapple Band) plays the music of the islands, and they will transport us in the middle of winter to a tropical paradise, with an evening of Hawaiian / Tiki music sure to lift your spirits. You'll hear ukulele, steel guitar and slack key guitar with a program that will explore the vastness of Hawaiian music and its influence on other music.

GRAND TANGO PIANO / CELLO DUO

Friday, March 13, 2020 @ 7 pm
To benefit Family Tree - House of Hope

Experience the inspiring piano/cello music of Carl Algermissen and Ethan Lazarus as they present a program ranging from the passion of nuevo tango to the lyricism of cinema scores. For 35 years, this duo has shared the unique beauty of their piano and cello sounds with local and national audiences. This concert will feature original arrangements from their newest album, "Street Tango" along with several debuts. You won't want to miss this evening of musical colors drawn from an abundant palette of classical and jazz paints.

CENTRAL CITY OPERA SMOOTH OPERATOR

Friday, April 17, 2020 @ 7 pm
To benefit St. Clare's Ministries

Some of the most memorable characters in opera and musical theatre are the smooth operators – the connivers and conspirators. Don Juan, Cleopatra, Delilah, Carmen, Sweeney Todd and others sing some of the most gorgeous arias and duets ever written, plus funny, jazzy, finger-snapping numbers that will leave the audience wanting more from these scandalous schemers. Featuring Central City Opera Touring Artists Amanda Raddatz, Sarah Barber, Steve Taylor, and Deborah Schmit-Lobis.